

NUMERACY

- Mental maths tests – weekly
- Big maths testing – weekly
- Abacus evolve
  - Adding
  - Subtraction
  - Time– hours, half hours quarter hours and minutes
  - Multiplication
  - Calendar months

OTHER CURRICULAR AREAS

- Science investigations –
  - How things work
  - Forces of different kinds e.g. gravity, air resistance.
  - The ways in which forces can effect movement and how forces can be compared

Space

LITERACY

Genres to be covered this term to include:

- Portrait / fact file – about a famous astronaut
- Why something happens – how rockets are made to 'break' in sections during their journey.
- Poetry – cinquains – five lines - one word, two words, three words, four words and one word.
- Dialogue – between Tim Peakes and mission control / fellow astronauts
- Grammar activities – Letts educational differentiated activity books Word and Sentence

HOMEWORK

Nelson Spelling

Big maths

Multiplication tables

Reading

Information for Parents 2E – year 3

These are examples of the skills your child will be learning this half term. They are not set in stone as the learning will be led by the children. These skills can be reinforced with your support by reading regularly with your child, practicing money skills when you shop, playing literacy games in the car, learning tables or by discussing news with your child. Thank you for your support.